

4-H Youth Programs

4-H programs in Anson County vary. Short-term special interest activities are conducted out-of-school and usually include a minimum of six hours instructional time.

School enrichment programs are offered in several curriculum areas for elementary schools. Some programs are annual events while others are designed in response to special needs.

Traditional community clubs provide group experiences to develop leadership and citizenship skills in youth.

Youth Programs

4-H programs are offered to youth in Anson County through special interest, school enrichment and community club programs. These three different components of the 4-H program encompass a wide variety of events and activities.

Special interest programs provide educational opportunities to all youth. 4-H enrollment is not required. School enrichment programs enhance school curriculum available to young people. Community club programs make up the traditional segment for enrolled 4-H members.